SEC. 2. Any person over eighteen years of age, of good moral character, who is a native of the State of Ohio, or has been a resident of Ohio for a period of five years, or is the husband, wife, son or daughter of a member of this Society, may be admitted as an Active member.

SEC. 3. Any person of like age and character, and similarly qualified, residing in Ohio or born therein, or having been a resident thereof for five years, and residing elsewhere than in the City of Washington and not within twenty-five miles thereof, may be admitted as a Non-resident member.

SEC. 4. Non-resident members shall be entitled to all the privileges of the Society, except that they shall not vote or hold office.

SEC. 5. Any person who shall be proposed one month in advance may be admitted as an Honorary member, but not more than four such members shall be elected in any one year.

ARTICLE V.

Any person elected to membership after August 1st shall be required to pay one-half of the annual dues for that year.

ARTICLE II.

MEETINGS.

SEC. 1. In addition to the annual meeting of the Society provided for by the Constitution, regular meetings of the Society shall be held on the second Monday of December, March and April.

SEC. 2. A special meeting of the Society shall be called at any time by the President on the written request of three members of the Governing Committee, or of ten members of the Society, stating the purpose of such meeting. Notice of such meeting shall be mailed to Active members at least two days before the fixed date therefor, stating the purpose thereof, and no other business than that named in the notice shall be considered at such meeting, except by unanimous consent.

ARTICLE III.

NOMINATIONS.

SEC. 1. At the regular meeting of the Society in March of each year, a committee of seven members shall be elected by ballot to recommend members for the offices to be filled at the succeeding annual election. Any member of the Society may present the name of one member for this committee to be thus elected by ballot, until twenty-one shall have been so presented. The seven receiving the highest number of votes cast shall constitute the Committee. Not more than seven names shall be written upon any ballot so cast, nor shall any name appear twice upon the same ballot. Additional ballots shall be taken when necessary.

SEC. 2. Said Committee shall report to the Society, at its annual meeting in April, a complete ticket for the offices to be filled, and shall mail a copy of same to each active member at least ten days in advance of each meeting.

SEC. 3. Any seven or more members may, in like manner, prepare and report to the Society, another ticket to be voted for at the annual election, provided that such ticket be prepared and mailed to each Active member as above.

SEC. 4. Members who are thus named, and whose names appear on such ticket or tickets as hereinbefore prescribed, and no others, shall be eligible for election.

SEC. 5. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Society to send a copy of such tickets by mail to each Active member.

The ticket reported by the Nominating Committee shall be headed "Ticket reported by the Nominating Committee" and the other ticket, if any, shall be headed "Independent Ticket."

ARTICLE IV.

ELECTIONS.

At the April meeting all the officers of the Society shall be elected by ballot for a term of one year, except as follows: At the election to be held in April, 1912, two of the Trustees shall be elected for one year, two for two years, and two for three years. Annually thereafter two shall be elected for a term of three years.

At the meeting on February 18, 1910, seven persons eligible to membership shall be selected to receive the signatures to the Constitution and By-Laws as herein provided and thereafter to recommend members for the offices of the Society and Standing Committees for the current year. The term of every officer shall continue until his successor has been elected and qualified.

All vacancies occurring during the year in the offices of President, Vice-Presidents, Secretary, or Treasurer, by resignation or otherwise, may be filled by ballot, for the unexpired term, at any regular meeting of the Society.

ARTICLE V.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

SEC. 1. The President, or, in his absence, the Vice-President first in order of election and present, shall preside at all meetings of the Society.

In the absence of the President and all the Vice-Presidents, a presiding officer shall be chosen without ballot from the members of the Society present.

In the absence from the city, or disability of the President, his duties shall devolve on the Vice-Presidents in the order of their election.

SEC. 2. The Secretary shall conduct the correspondence of the Society; keep the roll of members; notify new members of their election; keep and preserve a record of the proceedings of the Society and of the Governing Committee; and of all matters which shall be deemed desirable by the Society or that Committee; furnish information on call of any of the Committees, and discharge such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Society or the President.

SEC. 3. The Treasurer shall collect and have custody of all fees and dues of members and other funds of the Society, and disburse them on the written order of the Governing Committee.

He shall execute a bond satisfactory to the Board of Trustees in such an amount as they may deem sufficient for the faithful performance of his duty as Treasurer of the Society, and shall keep the funds of the Society, as its Treasurer, in a bank to be designated by himself and approved by the Board of Trustees.

He shall submit a brief account of receipts and expenditures at each monthly meeting, and a detailed account at each annual meeting, and shall furnish to the Governing Committee, from time to time, such information relative to the funds of the Society as that Committee may require.

SEC. 4. The Governing Committee shall manage the general affairs of the Society, subject to such instructions and limitations as from time to time may be prescribed by the Society.

It shall control and manage the property of the Society, and enforce obedience to its rules. All expenditures and all contracts shall be made by it, but it shall not have power, without express authority from the Society, to make it liable for any debts exceeding one-half the sum which, at the time of contracting the same, shall be in the hands of the Treasurer in cash, and not subject to prior liabilities.

It shall appoint a House Committee of three members, and may, from time to time, declare their duties and their term of office.

It shall make a full report of all its proceedings at the April meeting, and may, at any regular meeting, recommend such action by the Society as it may deem advisable.

It shall meet at the call of the Chairman, and three members shall constitute a quorum.

It shall fill any vacancy in its membership until the next annual meeting, except a vacancy occasioned by the death, resignation, or removal of an ex-officio member.

ARTICLE VI.

ADMISSION.

New members may be admitted by the Governing Committee, after their names, residence in Ohio, together with the names of their proposers, shall have been mailed to each Active member of the Society at least ten days before the date of each meeting. No person shall be admitted if objected to by five members.

ARTICLE VII.

SUSPENSION.

The Governing Committee may, by a vote of three-fourths of its members present, suspend any member of the Society who, in its judgment, shall have been guilty of gross misbehavior, or of obtaining membership without being qualified. Such suspension shall continue until the next meeting of the Society, when, unless the same be then revoked by vote of majority of the members present, such suspended person shall cease to be a member of the Society. Due notice of the ground of such proposed suspension shall be given to such member, who shall have an opportunity to be heard by the Committee before suspension, and by the Society at its next meeting.

ARTICLE VIII.

COMMITTEES.

At the regular meeting of the Society in April of each year standing committees of five members each shall be appointed, viz.: Membership Committee, an Entertainment Committee, a Library Committee, and an Auditing Committee.

ARTICLE IX.

APPOINTMENT AND ORGANIZATION OF COMMITTEES.

Unless otherwise ordered, the Board shall designate the members of Committees; and each committee shall elect its Chairman, without regard to the order of names designated.

ARTICLE X.

DUTIES OF COMMITTEES.

SEC. 1. The Membership Committee shall use all honorable means to secure desirable members for the Society. It shall arrange for such receptions to Ohioans eligible to membership, as the Governing Committee may authorize; and for these occasions may extend invitations to such Ohioans as it may deem advisable. Said Committee shall keep such files and records as it may consider valuable to the Society in this respect.

SEC. 2. The Entertainment Committee shall arrange for such entertainments as, in its judgment, may seem best for the interests of the Society, and may incur therefor such reasonable expenses as the Governing Committee may authorize.

SEC. 3. The Library Committee shall have charge of the books and publications belonging to the Society; shall purchase such books and publications as may be authorized by the Governing Committee, and may solicit donations of the same for the benefit of the Society.

SEC. 4. The Auditing Committee shall, at least once each year, and oftener if it chooses, audit the accounts and vouchers of the Treasurer of the Society and report upon the same at the April meeting of the Society, and oftener to the Board of Trustees, as it may see fit, or as the latter may direct.

ARTICLE XI.

RULES OF PROCEDURE.

The rules of Cushing's Manual shall govern the procedure at meetings of the Society, so far as they may be consistent with the Constitution and By-Laws.

ARTICLE XII.

AMENDMENTS.

The By-Laws may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any regular meeting, without previous notice, or by a majority vote if notice in writing of the proposed amendment shall have been given at a preceding meeting.
